

Wellingborough & District Canine Society

Open Show 13th April 2019

Pointers

Firstly, I must say thank you to the committee of Wellingborough & District CS for inviting me to judge and secondly, to my exhibitors for such a wonderful entry, there being only one absentee. The quality of dogs was high and gave me several headaches!

P (7,0)

1: Swannell's Rickory Spill the Beans, 10 mth dog with a nice overall appearance. Typical head with good stop, kind eyes and neatly set ears. Correct bite. Good reach of neck into well formed shoulders with correct angulation. Body nicely coupled, with deep chest and plenty of heart room. Strong hindquarters, nicely angulated between first and second thigh; good tailset. Plenty of bone in the legs, feet nice and tight. Movement a little loose, but that will come with time, and kept topline.

2: Lowe's Lowsmoor Half A Sixpence, 9½ mnth old bitch presenting a pleasing feminine outline. Lovely head and kind expression. Nice set ears and correct bite. Another one with a nice reach of neck into well angulated shoulders, deep chest with good tuckup and good hindquarters, good tailset; well muscled but not overdone. Good legs and feet, moved well both coming and going.

3. Harrison's Millpoint Sound Wave.

J (5,0)

1: Razzell & Hazeltine's Hookwood Blondie. What a lovely compact little bitch, all there in proportion, with just a few lemon markings. Lovely head, nice set ears, eyes giving me an alert expression; good mouth with correct bite. Very nice reach of neck into long sloping well laid back shoulders. Body nice and compact, with deep brisket and good tuck up, short coupled. Well developed hindquarters with good angulation. Correct tailset. Plenty of bone for her size moved well on good tight feet, maintaining topline. Pushed hard for RBOB.

2. Adams & Scales Fisherbloom Re'encountered. B/W dog presenting a very nice outline. Lovely masculine head, good ear set and dark eye with kind expression. Strong jaws, correct scissor bite. Nice reach of neck into powerful well angled shoulders. Deep brisket and good tuck up, well muscled hindquarters. Another that moved well on good legs and feet, correct tailset.

3. Anthony's Jilony Iris. R: Stilgoe's Olivesong Chase the Memory to Teisgol B/W dog, pleasing outline, good head, dark eye correct scissor bite. Nicely proportioned youngster at 10½ months, and maturing nicely. Good depth of chest nicely boned, correct tailset. Moved well coming and going – BP.
