TERRIER GROUP

A lovely quality group of terriers with the Smooth Fox taking the top spot, Brookes, Zetamaz Just Inked, this dog has matured as I hoped from the last time judged him as a puppy, a lovely outline and well balanced, lovely head and well carried ears, dark eye with keen expression, good neck well placed shoulders, good forequarters, ribs and body, short back, level, well set tail, good hindquarters, moved and showed well. I was pleased to hear he finished Best in Show. 2. Desmond, Ch. Elitebulls Challenger, a quality Stafford who pressed the Smooth all the way, a lovely well balanced dog showing all his virtues, great strength, muscular and agile, good head, lovely quarters fore and aft, deep brisket, good ribs, close coupled, good tail and carriage. Moved very well. 3. Hollingsbee, Otterwood Diodem JW., another one I judged as a minor puppy and matured on, good type, feminine head, dark eye with keen expression, good ears, nice neck and forequarters, good ribs and body, good hindquarters, moved well, good outline and overall balance. 4. Moles & Williams, Ch. Celtannia Extra Chic, SCWT, a well-balanced bitch with good outline, good head, feminine with good expression, good ears, well carried, nice neck good shoulders and forequarters, deep chest, good ribs and body, short loin, level topline, good hindquarters moved well. Good coat and texture.

TERRIER PUPPY GROUP.

Winner of the puppy group was the Staffordshire bull terrier, Bissell & Candy, Annemstaffs Maggie May, a well-balanced 11 month old, good head, broad skull, distinct stop, pronounced check muscles, muscular neck, good forequarters, good ribs and body, short coupled, strong hindquarters, moved well. 2. Small, Howthwaite Gentil Duke at Tilmoray, Border, very typical, a shade larger cast but balanced overall, typey head, nice neck and forequarters, spanable ribs, nice hindquarter, good harsh coat. Moved well. 3. Kinchin, Pennidazzle Dream of Dreams, Cairn. 4. Harrison, Rosadyva Midnight Sapphire, a nicely made 7 month Manchester, pleasing in outline and overall balance, nice head, and quarters, just needs a little more confidence.
